

FE EVI GREEN BUSINESS LEADERSHIP AWARDS 2010-11

The FE EVI Green Business Leadership Awards 2010-11 is scheduled to be held on World Environment Day, June 5 at Hyatt Regency, New Delhi.

The event is being organized by Emergent Ventures India in partnership with The Financial Express. The event will be also marked by the release of FE-EVI Green Business Survey 2010-11.

Dr. A.P.J Abdul Kalam, Former President of India and Dr. Farooq Abdullah, Honourable Minister of New and Renewable Energy will present the awards to those Indian businesses whose efforts to address the issues of sustainability and climate change have resulted in significant improvement along environmental and social dimensions. The ceremony will see representation from Industry, Government, Media, and Society.

The winners of the FE-EVI Green Business Leaders have been selected based on the FE-EVI Green Business Survey and a jury of experts from industry, academia, and policy was brought together to serve as guides and independent assessors for the evaluation process. This is the third edition for the survey.

The event will be rounded off with a panel discussion on 'Sustainability as a Business Strategy'.
